EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Financial Matters in New York City.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—In Wall street the day opened with an unsettled feeling in consequence of the suspension of Howes & Macey, bankers, and Brown & Watson, gold brokers. There was but very little excitement. Later an improved feeling prevailed, when the clearing house meeting adjourned. Money is about one per cent per diem. Foreign exchange is dull and nominal. Prime bankers' rates have been marked down to 7 for sixty days and 7½ for short sight. Good bills could be bought for much less. Offerings of United States bonds to the Treasury have been slow and lagging, only $2,611,750 having been received. In the street a strong demand for all classes of United States bonds for cash has been noted, though of course the offerings were slim. The Clearing House Committee issued two and a half million dollars in loan certificates to-day, making a total thus far since Monday morning of twelve and a half millions. Assurances are given by leading dry goods houses, and those interested in other branches of commerce that no trouble exists in those departments, despite various reports, and have done much toward alleviating the condition in Wall street, and in a measure accounts for the quieter state of affairs.

The cablegram announcing the suspension of Clewes & Co., in London, had no effect on the street.

The feeling on the street continues strongly in favor of keeping the Stock Exchange closed. In fact, this measure is absolutely necessary to save any fresh excitement.

At various savings banks throughout the city matters were extremely quiet to-day. People seem to be regaining their senses, and to have confidence in the stability of the banks. Large numbers of deposits were made to-day by persons most anxious to draw their money on Monday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25—10.15 A. M.—The Stock Exchange remains closed by order of the Governing Committee. No purchases of bonds are making at the Sub-Treasury. The officials are awaiting instructions from Washington.

Views of a Suspended Firm.

Mr. Howes, of Howes & Macey, suspended bankers, say that they had not borrowed a dollar, and did not intend to borrow one. "We have plenty of the very best securities, but don't propose to sacrifice them at the prices now current. The fact of the matter is that a general suspension of large banking institutions has become a necessity, and the sooner it takes place the better. Small houses can afford to hold out, perhaps, but large ones must suspend or go under."

Views of Secretary Richardson.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The Secretary of the Treasury yesterday suggested to the President that the purchase of bonds now being made shall cease when $12,000,000 shall have been purchased. He says the Treasury cannot furnish all the currency that a frantic people may want; that the Treasury must be kept strong so that it may be in a condition to assist commerce after the financial crisis.

Inquiry having been made here of the Secretary of the Treasury as to the further purchase of bonds by the Government—it having been reported that the limit of such purchases has been reached by the Sub-Treasury at New York—Judge Richardson announces that purchases will stop until the return to this city of the President from Long Branch, when the subject of continuing the purchases will be taken into consideration. The President is expected to reach Washington to-day.

The Chicago Grain Market.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The effect of the financial troubles in New York has been felt here mainly in the depression of prices of grain, which are much lower than they have been for many months. Wheat closed to-day at 90 cents cash, and $1 by sellers. October corn is 34 cents cash. The impossibility of negotiating Eastern exchange, and the scarcity of currency in bank here, contributed to the depression of the market and brought the grain trade nearly to a stand still. There has been no trouble with banks, however, all of them having gone through the clearing-house all right every day since the panic begun, and there have been no failures among grain dealers or merchants. The feeling is one of confidence, and there is a general belief that the storm has passed.

Financial Affairs in Charleston.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 25.—Money is so stringent here that no obligations are contracted. All business is limited in amount. No failures have been reported. Most of the banks pay checks as usual. There has not been the first symptom of a run.

Suspensions in Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Sept. 24.—The bankers and brokers of this city who are agents of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, having branch houses in New York and Richmond, suspended this afternoon. The firms state that the suspension was caused by an unexpected and unprecedented run.

New York Republican Convention.

UTICA, N. Y., Sept. 25.—At the New York Republican Convention yesterday, the following ticket was nominated: Francis S. Thayer for Secretary of State; Nelson K. Hopkins, Comptroller; Daniel G. Frost, Treasurer; Benj. D. Silliman, Attorney-General; Col. Sydney Mead, Canal Commissioner; W. B. Taylor, State Engineer and M. K. Platte for Prison Inspector.

The Parker Murder.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—Thomas B. Parker shot his wife this forenoon and then shot himself. Parker was a retired iron merchant and very wealthy. The parties moved in the highest circles. She still survives, but the wound is believed to be mortal. Jealousy is supposed to be the cause.

Sentence of the Isle of Shoals Murderer.

ALFRED, Me., Sept. 25.—Louis F. Wagner, the Isle of Shoals murderer, has been sentenced to be hanged. He protests his entire innocence of the crime.

Mormon Recruits.

OMAHA, Sept. 24.—Six hundred Mormons arrived from the East to-day en route for Utah.

A large force of recruits for the Fourth Infantry passed through this city to-day bound west.

Wisconsin Politics.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 24.—The Democratic and Liberal State Convention nominated to-day for Governor, William R. Taylor; for Lieut. Governor, C. D. Harker; for Treasurer of State, Ferdinand Kuhn; for Secretary of State, Peter Doyle; for Attorney General, A. S. Sloan. The resolutions adopted favor cheap transportation, improvement of Fox river and other navigable waters of Wisconsin at the expense of the General Government, and opposes protective tariff, back-pay steal, railroad monopolies, free passes to members of the legislature, Credit Mobilier and corrupt legislation.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Notification to Surrender.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The Commissioner of the General Land office to-day notified the Central Pacific railroad to surrender the patents for some 5,300 acres of land in Yolo county, California, which land was patented April 9, 1870, to the Western Pacific Railroad Company, but which it now appears had been selected by the State of California as swamp land prior to the passage of the act of July 23, 1866, and thereby became the property of the State.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The Daily Telegraph in an editorial on the financial crisis in New York recommends a virtual suspension of all payments, and the substitution of a system upon individual credit. By this means time will be given for the excitement to subside.

CANADA.

Wreck of a Canadian Steamship.

QUEBEC, Sept. 24.—The Canadian steamship [illegible], from this port for London, is reported wrecked in the Strait of Belle Isle. Seven of the crew were drowned.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Samuel J. Backstaver, a well known citizen of this place, committed suicide at 9 o'clock this morning at his home on Natoma street, near Ninth. He got up, procured a pistol, lay back into bed and shot himself through the head, dying instantly. He has been very despondent of late but none of his friends anticipated such a tragical result. He leaves a wife and several children.

A young woman, whose name is unknown and who cannot be found, threw her babe into a vault on Hatch street last night. A gentleman passing heard the child's cries, tore up the planks of the vault, rescued and took the babe to his own home and his wife cared for it properly.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—At 1 P. M. to-day the Costa Rica was safely docked at Hunter's Point. The damage to the ship's bottom is not as serious as was at first supposed. She will come out of the dock in a few days.

About a week since detectives Jones and Coffee arrested a young man named Max Newman of Indianapolis who is charged with being a defaulter to the extent of $10,000 as agent of Hahn & Bals, liquor dealers of that city. Chief of Police Thompson, of that city, arrived to-day and started East with the prisoner.

Edward Kennedy, proprietor of the Genesee flouring mills of this city, died to-day.

A petition of citizens of Oakland was presented to-day to the Board of State Harbor Commissioners asking that body to reduce tolls charged by the Central Pacific Railroad Company for wharfage in this city.

Local bankers are pursuing very cautious policy at the present time, drawing as little exchange as possible and no telegraphic transfers.

O. H. Congar and B. F. Dalton have commenced suit here to compel the reissuance to them of $10,000 of the Emma Mine, Utah.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Detective officers are at work endeavoring to solve the mystery of the death of Wm. Cotin, found in the bay at Hunter's Point, several days since.

It is stated that the New York officials, who were sent out to take Irving, the confessed Nathan murderer, to that city, have arrived at Sacramento.

Interior California.

BERKELEY, Sept. 25.—The University of California commenced its fifth year to-day in the new spacious buildings provided by the State, at Berkeley. Fifty-six new students applied for admission, and most of the former students have returned. The opening exercises consisted of prayer by ex-President Durant, an address on the part of the faculty by President Gilman, and an address on the part of the Regents by Rev. Dr. Stebbins. A large assembly of ladies and gentlemen were present.

The Western Union Telegraph Company has established an office at Berkeley.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 25—12:30 P. M.—The interior delegations come in unanimously for an independent nomination, and there is but little doubt that one will be made. McKinstry appears to be the favorite with all. Appearances assuredly indicate that out of the forthcoming elements of the anti-monopoly movement a new political organization will be evolved. The popular programme among the delegates contemplates the adoption of a bran-new party platform, which, while comprehending the control of the monopolies, shall express in explicit terms the feelings of the people upon the great issues of the day. The attendance, considering the limited notice given in the call for the convention, exceeds the anticipations of prominent members, and is gratifying in every respect. Judge McKinstry will probably receive the nomination by acclamation.

MARYSVILLE, Sept. 25.—A young lady, 17 years of age, living near St. John's, disappeared last Saturday in a mysterious manner, and up to Tuesday no tidings were obtained of her. She left home on Saturday morning, on horseback, to visit a neighbor five miles distant. Her saddled horse arrived at the intended place of visit without a rider. It was supposed that she was thrown, but notwithstanding a most thorough search for three days by a large number of men, nothing has been heard or seen of her. The impression prevails that she has been kidnapped by a party of Mexicans who have a band of horses not far distant from Stony Creek.

An affray occurred at the Oregon House on the 15th inst., between J. H. Foulkes and Thomas Hawerth, which resulted fatally to the latter last Saturday morning. The quarrel originated in relation to a law suit. This led to a personal encounter, in which the parties fought till they reached the street, there the fight terminated by a stunning blow by Foulkes which broke the bridge of Hawerth's nose and drove a piece into the brain. Hawerth's injuries were considered slight until the day before his death. Foulkes surrendered.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 25.—The Independent State Convention is in session here. At the meeting this evening the Committee on Permanent Organization reported the following officers: President, P. Vanclief; Secretaries, F. P. Dann and W. A. Andrews. A long series of resolutions were passed descriptive of the platform principles of the party. It is uncertain whether nominations will be reached to-night.

LATER.—Judge E. W. McKinstry was unanimously nominated as Judge of the Supreme Court.

A half drunken man, name unknown, was arrested to-night for firing two shots from a revolver at Wm. Hunt. No damage done.

STOCKTON, Sept. 25.—Several hundred visitors arrived in town last night, and this morning the streets present a gala-day appearance. The attendance at the pavilion and Agricultural Park to-day has been immense, not less than four thousand being present at the park this afternoon.

The first race was a continued trotting race of yesterday. Glencoe won two heats in this race yesterday. The race was won by American Boy. Time, 2:47½, 2:53, 2:51. The second race was running mile heats, best two in three, free for all three year olds; premium, $180. Four entries—Watson's Johnny, Creese's Nellie Wolf, Sheppard's Susie and Frank. Susie Sheppard distanced the field on the first heat, winning the race and first money. Time, 1:55¼. Third race, trotting race, mile heats, 3 in 5, free for all stallions, premium, $200. Three started—Phil Sheridan, Budd Doble, Black Bill. Victory for Black Bill, winning the race and first money on first heat; distancing Doble and Sheridan. Time, 2:53. The attendance at the pavilion is a jam. Judge Budd is now delivering the Annual Address.

CHICO, Sept. 25.—The attendance at the race track, to-day, is the largest during the week. There are over 3,000 persons present. The pavilion is well attended. The Annual Address will be delivered at the pavilion this evening by Hon. G. Sweezy of Marysville. The display of stock is better than at any previous year.

SUCKER FLAT, Sept. 25.—Dennis Duggan, while cutting wood at Mooney Flat, was struck by a falling tree and instantly killed.

VALLEJO, Sept. 25.—The Alert Boat Club of Vallejo, have received a challenge from the Riversides, of Sacramento, to row a race for the championship. The Alerts won the race at the State regatta, at Sacramento, and the Riversides won at Vallejo on the 4th of July.

A man named Jackson to-day, while working at St John quicksilver mine, the earth caved upon him. He died from its effects.

The Grand Lodge of Good Templars to-day elected A. D. Wood of Sacramento re-elected, G. W. C. T.; John B. Carrington, of Healdsburg, G. W. Councilor; Mrs. M. M. Carpenter, of San Francisco, G. W. V. T.; G. B. Katzenstein, of Sacramento, G. W. S.; J. G. H. Loy, of Vallejo, G. W. T.; A. D. Wood, Wm. Crowhurst and Wm. Potter were elected as representatives to the Right Worthy Grand Lodge. R. Thompson, Wm. Fisher and N. Williams were elected Grand Trustees; W. H. Mills, J. B. Carrington, A. G. Clark, Samuel Kitto, J. W. Simonton, Orphans' Home Trustees; Mrs. E. J. Wilson, Mrs. J. B. Robinson and Mrs. R. Thompson, Lady Matron of Orphans' Home.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

ALBANY, Sept. 25.—At the Linn County Fair to-day in the running race mile heats three in five, for the $300 purse, three entries were made. Biskett's Game Doll won the first, fourth and fifth heats and the purse, coming out half a length ahead.

MASSACHUSETTS REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

Resolved, That the Republicans of Massachusetts emphatically disapprove of and condemn the action of the members of the last Congress, Republicans and Democrats, who availed themselves of the occasion of an increase of the salary of the President and of the Judges of the Supreme Court and of the members of the Cabinet, supposed to be just and necessary for the time, to secure to themselves a large, improper and extravagant compensation for past as well as future service.

Resolved, That while we recognize the full right of every citizen to express and act upon his convictions upon all questions of public interest, no person holding federal office has the right to seek to influence the action of his subordinates by exciting their fears of loss of place if their opinions, or actions shall differ from his own; and we call upon the President forthwith to remove every public officer who has thus improperly interfered with the independence of the Republicans of Massachusetts in the management of their local concerns, wherever the fact is proved to his satisfaction.

Resolved, That the adoption of a policy which shall so reduce freights on railroads that the raw material, food, and coal of the West and South shall be exchanged at the least possible cost for the manufacturers of New England, is interesting to the whole country and vital to the industries of Massachusetts; that the powers vested by the Constitution in Congress to regulate commerce between the States includes jurisdiction over this great subject, and that we call upon Congress and our State legislatures so to exercise all their powers over the railroads of the country, as, without injustice to them, may reduce freights and fares to proper rates, and secure the advantages of these great highways to the whole people free from all preference or monopoly.

Resolved, That the Republican party is the party of temperance, order and law; that it favors the honest and impartial execution in good faith of all laws, especially those for the suppression of crime, intemperance and disorder; that the character and details of such laws must be such as the people shall decide through their representatives chosen to the two branches of the legislature, and, when so determined, should be obeyed cheerfully by all law-abiding citizens until repealed by the same authority.

Resolved, That we demand such legislation on the hours of labor as will secure the ten hour system for women and minors employed in the factories of Massachusetts.

Resolved, That every great achievement for personal liberty for the preservation of the Union, the education, for the elevation of women, for the extension of the suffrage which has been accomplished in this country for a generation has been due to the Republican party; that while none of these great causes has any thing to hope in the future from any other source; while every new truth, every claim founded on justice, will in the future, as in the past, find its earliest converts, its most generous recognition, its strongest advocates and its first victories among the Republicans of Massachusetts; that the pressing duty of the day is to secure honesty and purity, the right of the people peaceably to assemble and take counsel on public matters and select their agents free from violence, intimidation and fraud; the right to hold caucuses and conventions without being cheated or bullied; and we therefore call upon all honest Republicans, however they may differ on other questions, or how far soever they may have advanced in their reception of new ideas, to unite in purging the commonwealth and nation of violence, treachery and corruption.

Resolved, That the Republican party of Massachusetts feels a just pride in the achievements of that national administration which they so largely helped to elect and to which they have been so faithful and true; that they renew their expressions of gratitude to President Grant for his great services, civil and military and that they will stand by him in all his efforts for the honest payment of the national debt in gold to which the faith of the nation is plighted, in his efforts to place the civil service of the country on a purer and a higher level, so that federal offices may hereafter be used to serve the people and not to bribe them, and in all the other great measures foreshadowed in the Republican platform of 1872.

Resolved, That the Republicans of Massachusetts look with just pride upon the republican administration of the Commonwealth, and recognize in their candidate for Governor, William Barrett Washburn, the same qualities of good sense, fidelity and uprightness, the same watchfulness for the public interest and care for the public welfare which he had so conspicuously exhibited as one of our Representatives in Congress; and we commend him and his associates upon the ticket this day nominated to the hearty support of the good people of this Commonwealth.

THE LONDON TIMES ON "CÆSARISM."—A London dispatch of the 13th inst., gives the following:

The London Times in its issue to-day treats of the subject of Cæsarism in America editorially, using the argument that a change in the Presidency of the United States would be a great reform, and might be welcome to the people, if possible, as a means of effecting the extinction in America of the system of constant re-election of the Executive and attendant evils. Inasmuch as the present plan fail to secure to the community the benefits which were expected from it, as it involves the presence of evils greater than those which it was framed to prevent, there can be no doubt that the election of President Grant to a third term of office may have important consequences not intended by those who have suggested it. A third Presidential term may be followed by a fourth, and the lease of power may be again renewed until terminated by failing health or the termination of the life of the holder of the office. It may in this way come to be an understood thing that the American President shall be elected for life, and that his re-election taken at the end of each four years will merely be nominally as a safeguard against the perpetration of any scandalous misuse of power. It would be a great and important change if this were to occur, one that would not fail to largely influence the general state of politics in America. It would be likely to secure to the people of the Central States the services of better men, to render the process of their appointment to office less degrading to themselves and all concerned. The details of an American Presidential election are received on this side of the Atlantic with amusement and disgust, and there are many evidences which go to show that they are looked on in much the same way in America. It would be worth while to try a plan which could do little harm and do much good. It is the simplest plan of reform.

SETTING TYPE FOR DEAR LIFE.—The contest for supremacy for fast setting, by members of the Printers' Social Club of Hartford County, took place Monday afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock, at Boardman's Grove. The first prize won by H. W. Dennis, is a little stick—a printer's stick—made all of gold. It is in size only 1½ inches by 2 of an inch, but is perfect—the new patent style working as nicely as can be. It was made at Hubbard's jewelry establishment. The second prize won by Cris Wall is a silver-plated stick of regular size made after the newly patented Hartford invention with patent scale and measuring scale.

Only two competitors tried. They set type 30 minutes each and from the same copy. Mr Wall beat his antagonist just two lines but having a "doublet" he was obliged to distribute it, and thus lost the first prize. Mr Wall set 656 ems; Dennis 660.—N. Y. Commercial, Sept. 10th.

LETTER FROM J. H. FAIRCHILD.

THE SILETZ INDIAN "WAR DANCE" AT SILETZ—RELIGIOUS STATUS OF THE SILETZ INDIANS.

SILETZ INDIAN AGENCY, Sept. 16, 1873.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

I notice in the DAILY OREGONIAN of September 13th, the following item concerning this Agency and as if uncontradicted, it is calculated to produce a false impression I ask space to reply:

"The Siletz Indians are again dancing the so-called war dance. A letter in the Statesman says: The Indians say they are not well treated this summer by the Bostons, and besides are sulky about the Modocs. One of the Indians said to-night that they would dance in spite of Fairchild, that he could not stop them. I do not consider the reports about the religious progress of Christianizing the Indians a fair statement," etc.

I can well imagine the source from which the above statement originated. The greatest efforts to conciliate and accommodate some people seem only to sharpen their malice. If there is dissatisfaction among the Indian respecting their treatment this summer, I have yet to learn it. The "so-called war-dance" is not a war-dance; and notwithstanding the ferocious determination of the letter writer's Indian, to "dance in spite of Fairchild," a simple request that they would cease, in the early part of July, put an immediate stop to it at that time, and there has been no dancing at the Agency since. I am satisfied the whole conversation originated with the writer of the letter. At one of the outlying stations belonging to this Agency, where, I am sorry to say, the influence of the person in charge has not been such as I could wish, I have understood the Indians have commenced dancing. This evil has now been remedied. I trust a better influence may hereafter prevail.

With regard to the religious progress already made, it is only necessary to say, that previous to the middle of May last, these Indians had never been brought under the influence of Christian teaching. A missionary had, it is true, been stationed here for a time, but various circumstances neutralized his efforts, and nothing was then accomplished. Since the time above mentioned, we have been favored with the labors of Rev. W. C. Chattin, and though but five months have elapsed, the converts number over forty, of the most influential among the Indians, who give evidence, by their changed lives and the good influence they exert on others, that their profession is not in vain. I am aware that there is, in certain quarters, the most determined hostility to the present Indian policy, and by some, no effort is spared to create a hostile public sentiment, and belittle any measures looking to the Christianizing the Indians. Yet, surely, all good men must rejoice to see a people, lately savages, forsaking the superstitions of their fathers, and honestly striving to improve their condition, and to educate their children in the religion as well as the customs of the whites. That is the condition of these Indians at the present, and though there may be, and doubtless are, many who have not as yet been brought under the influence of missionary labor, yet any candid observer coming here now, and having seen this people a few months ago, cannot deny but a great and good work has been done, even in the short time we have had to labor.

In conclusion, I desire to say, that the extract above referred to is a tissue of misrepresentations, and for the truth of this I refer to the many candid and truthful persons who have favored us with their presence the past summer, and who have witnessed the changes that have taken place.

Asking pardon for occupying so much of your space, I remain

Yours very truly,

J. H. FAIRCHILD,

Indian Agent, Siletz, Oregon.

OUR SCHOOL BOOKS.

OFFICE SUP'T OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
SALEM, OREGON, Sept. 22, 1873.

To County School Superintendents, School Directors and Teachers, and all others whom it may concern:

I have the honor to announce that the first five readers and the speller of the Pacific Coast Series, with Hopkins' Manual of American Ideas in lieu of a Sixth Reader, have been duly adopted by vote of the County Superintendents, for use in the public schools of Oregon for the four years ending October 1st, 1877. The votes of the Superintendents were cast as follows:

For first five readers and speller of Pacific Coast Series: Supt's, Means, of Baker; Brown, of Benton, Noltner, of Clackamas; Hamilton, of Columbia; Hacker, of Coos; Canfield, of Curry, Todd, of Douglas; Holmes, of Grant; Adams, of Josephine; Hendricks, of Lane; Knight, of Marion; Grubbs, of Polk; Tripp, of Tillamook, Ingle, of Umatilla; White, of Union, and Robb, of Yamhill—16.

The first five readers of Harper's U. S. Series, Supt's, Fennay, of Clatsop; Stanley of Jackson; Stites, of Linn and Eliot, of Multnomah—4.

For first five readers of Wilson's School and Family Series, Supt's, Stephenson, of Wasco and Anderson, of Washington—2.

For Wilson's Speller, Supt's, Fennay, of Clatsop, Eliot of Multnomah and Anderson, of Washington—3.

For Saunders' New Speller, Supt. Stites, of Linn—1.

For Webster's Speller: Supt. Stephenson, of Wasco—1.

For Henderson's Test Words: Supt. Stanley, of Jackson—1.

For Hopkins Manual of American Ideas in lieu of Sixth Reader: Supt's Means, of Baker, Brown, of Benton, Noltner, of Clackamas, Hamilton, of Columbia, Canfield, of Curry, Todd, of Douglas; Holmes, of Grant, Adams, of Josephine, Stanley, of Jackson, Stites, of Linn Knight, of Marion; Eliot, of Multnomah, Grubbs, of Polk, Tripp of Tillamook, Ingle, of Umatilla; White, of Union and Stephenson, of Wasco—17.

For Hopkins' Manual, but not in lieu of Sixth Reader; Supt. Hacker, of Coos—1.

For Anderson's U. S. Historical Reader, as Sixth Reader, Supt. Hendricks, of Lane—1.

For Harper's U. S. Sixth Reader, Supt. Fennay, of Clatsop—1.

For Wilson's Sixth Reader; Supt. Anderson of Washington—1.

For no Sixth Reader: Supt. Robb, of Yamhill—1.

As soon as a supply of the books can be procured it is expected the schools will begin to introduce them, and that they will continue until all are fully introduced, after which the use of other books in their stead will be positively forbidden. Introduction must be completed by the 1st of March, 1874, rules in special cases and for special reasons upon direct application to the Board of Education further time is granted.

The customary introductory rates will be given by the publishers on the books being adopted.

Though Hopkins' Manual of American Ideas has been adopted in lieu of the Sixth Reader, it is expected that it will be used not merely as a reader but as a book for the regular instruction of pupils in the important study of the science of government. It is recommended that it be studied in all the public schools, if possible, whether they would otherwise use a Sixth Reader or not.

Newspapers throughout the State will confer a favor upon the patrons of the public schools, as well as upon the Board of Education by publishing at least the substance of this announcement.

SYL. C. SIMPSON,

Supt. of Public Instruction.

It is now announced that Senator Sumner will appear before lyceums during the next recess of Congress his lecture being a new one, and having as its subject "The Unity of the Republic." The Boston Transcript express regret at this determination on his part, and says that some of his Massachusetts friends think that he has none too much strength for his official duties as Senator.

OREGON.

The approaching trial of C. W. Meek, is considerably talked of in Washington county.

Washington county's share of the State school fund is $3,478. Four districts have not reported, and get no money.

The Washington county quarterly examination of teachers will be held at Forest Grove on Saturday, the 27th inst., commencing at 10 o'clock A. M.

The tone of the new fire alarm bell, recently purchased by the city of Salem, is not of that clearness which is desired, and is to be taken down and newly geared.

Political astronomers in Washington county are carefully taking preliminary observations on the signs of the times. This dreadful inactivity is certainly perplexing to the would-be's.

James Bybee and Bigham have arrived at the Hillsboro Fair ground bringing several fast horses of the Norwich and Lindsey stock and from appearances, the winning horse will have to travel.

Salem had an alarm of fire on Wednesday which brought out the Department in double quick. The "boys" thought of the "28 strong men" or the "league of nine." The loss was only a few cords of wood.

The Trustees of the Santiam Academy for the next year are, Rev. L. M. Nickerson, R. Cheadle, S. A. Nickerson, S. H. Claughton, J. M. McDonald, James H. McKnight. Of Umpqua Academy, Rev. J. H. Wilbur, Jas. Dodge, F. Southerland, E. T. Grubbe, Benj. Grubbe, T. F. Royal, A. M., C. Alderson, A. L. Humphrey are Trustees.

A Notary Public residing in an interior village a few days ago made a report to the Secretary of State, to the effect that the fees received by him, for the six months ending July 1st, 1873, amounted to $7. His report bears the following: "P. S.—As you will discover, my office is getting more remunerative, in fact it is a good thing, and I take this opportunity to request of you your favorable influence for my reappointment."

THE TERRITORIES.

It costs $108 freight on a threshing machine from Portland to Seattle.

Bark Marmion sailed from Port Gamble for San Francisco on the 18th inst.

Tacoma and Pierce county seem to be the home of romance. Something pleasant and talkative of that sort is continually occurring. On Sunday two couples from up the Puyallup eloped, intending to take the North Pacific at Tacoma for that purpose. The obdurate parents in one case, however, were too much for the young man, and the daughter was recovered before any damage done. The other couple got off all right, were married at Seattle and are now doing a little billing and cooing over in Victoria.

The Port Townsend Argus says: "Last week Thomas Marsden picked up a fine 500-pound anchor with fifteen fathoms of chain attached, and on Monday morning the schooner Ontario fished up a smaller anchor—about 250 or 300 pounds—on the bank below Point Hudson. The latter anchor had been lost for some time, as one of the flukes, which had been buried in the sand, is almost rusted away. There are many of these anchors and chains in and about the bay, and now and then they are accidentally picked up."

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The whaling schooner Kate was sold at Victoria by auction, for $600 last week.

The new Episcopal Church and several settlers' residences are in course of erection at Chilliwhack.

The valley of the Lower Frazer was visited by a thunder storm on Monday, accompanied by hail. At Yale, the storm was very violent.

Mahood's surveying party is about three miles south of Pitt River, working down. They have discovered some fine prairie land.

The New Westminster Herald announces the arrival of Duncan McMartin, the great gold prospector. He is suffering from aneurism, and is not expected to recover.

A dispatch from New York, dated Aug. 27th, to a Halifax paper, states that an effort is being made to have British Columbia admitted to the benefits of the Washington Treaty.

On Thursday of last week, an Indian was committed for trial on a charge of attempting to shoot a Chinaman. He was committed by Justices Miller and McGillvary, of Sumas.

Mr. Hargraves, who has been engaged in surveying the silver mines at Hope, returned to New Westminster on the 19th. He gives a very favorable account of the extent of the richness of the lead.

Dr. Jennings, who represents a number of San Francisco capitalists, is in New Westminster, and has been engaged in examining the salmon fisheries with a view to the establishment of a fishing station, on a large scale, at some point on the river.

It will be remembered that, on the 3d inst., and Indian named George was murdered at South Saanich, and that the Coroner's jury charged another Indian named Chillalian with the crime. Since that date, Chillalian has been evading the officers of justice, having been for the most part on San Juan Island. Mr. L. P. Lewis, Constable of Lake District, has had the matter in hand, and succeeded in arresting the rascal at the South Saanich rancherie on the 18th inst., handing him over to the Warden of Victoria jail, where he now lies awaiting trial.

Policeman William Clarke at daylight on the morning of the 16th, found the dead body of James Mackenzie, a poor old man, formerly barkeeper at Gilligan's, lying in the gutter of Yates street, between Quadra and Blanchard and not far from the Pioneer hotel, Victoria. There were no marks of violence on the body. In the pockets of deceased were found three bread tickets, a handkerchief, a knife and a piece of string. He was a native of Ireland, aged 65, a carpenter by trade, and was lately a patient in the Royal Hospital. The jury found that death resulted from natural causes.

The Victoria Colonist says: "We have received advices from Osoyoos to the effect that J. C. Haynes, Esq., Dominion Collector and J. P. at Osoyoos, has been the victim of what would seem to be most extraordinary treatment at the hands of the American Customs Officers stationed near the border. It appears that Mr. Haynes, who is also an extensive stock-raiser, has a large number of cattle running over the Osoyoos prairie, which is cut in two by the boundary line. The cattle not respecting geographical limits or international lines, naturally followed the bunch grass range into American territory. This they have done without molestation for years, until recently a Mr. Wolf has been appointed to the position of American Customs Officer, and stationed opposite Osoyoos. A few days ago, Mr. Wolf seized a large number of cattle belonging to Mr. Haynes which he found on his side of the line and when Mr. Haynes crossed to recover them he was hurried before Gen. Shanck, a U. S. Indian Agent and compelled to pay $150 and costs before his cattle were delivered up to him."

A conductor on the New Haven and Northampton Railroad, while taking fares the other day, was asked by an old gentleman—

"What do you do with this 'ere money you get of the passengers as don't have tickets?"

"Put it in my pocket," answered the good-natured conductor.

"Just what I thought," said the inquisitive old gentleman, returning to his newspaper.

LINN COUNTY FAIR.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

Third Day.

ALBANY, Sept. 25th, 1873—11 A. M.

When yesterday's report closed, J. H. Smith was about to take the stand to deliver the opening address. After repairing to the stand the officers consulted with Mr. Smith and the programme was changed, postponing the delivering of the address until 10 o'clock this morning. Mr. Smith spoke extempore, hence it was not possible to get a full report of the address.

THE RACES.

The races of Tuesday—half mile heats best two in three—about which there was some confusion, was awarded to Jack Knott's Vallandigham without running the race over, as was stated yesterday. After consideration the Judges concluded that the race was "run to the rule," and the award was made accordingly. The decision caused some complaint, but among men of the turf there were few who disputed the justice of the judgment of the Judges.

The first race to-day came off at 1:30. It was running a single dash of one mile, free for all, for a purse of $200—first horse $100, second horse $70 and the third horse $30—three to enter and two start. J. W. Finnell entered Tom Merry, Geo. Hughes entered Bill Gird, and Lindsey entered Vallandigham. The horses were let off in good shape, with Vallandigham on the inside, Bill Gird second, and Tom Merry third. For the first half mile the horses ran wild, neither showing signs of superior speed. After passing the half mile stake, the contest waxed warm, each horse striving for the lead. Interest in the result became intense. On reaching the home stretch, all three horses seemed to be even, and they ran thus lapped until they came within one hundred yards of the outcome. All three of the horses were at this time running under the whip, and they passed under the wire all lapped, with Tom Merry only about three feet in the lead. The Judges gave Tom Merry the race; time 1:55½. This race was decidedly the most interesting that has been run, and was perhaps the most hotly contested race ever run on this Fair Ground.

At 2:30 P. M., the trotting race, 2 in 3, for 3-year olds, came off. Welch entered Meteor; Lindsey, East Portland Belle, and Acker, Rose. This race was for a purse of $100; first horse $60, second $25, and third $15. Meteor won in two straight heats; time 3:10½ and 3:18. This ended the racing under the auspices of the Society. Many scrub races were run in the afternoon, but none worthy of special notice.

THE EXHIBITION OF STOCK.

A run around the stock stalls showed them still mostly empty. Jewet & Munson have a fine lot of pure Spanish Merino sheep which attract much attention. They are certainly very fine animals and deserve to be specially mentioned.

H. L. Rudd has a fine showing of pure imported Cotswold sheep which cannot be excelled.

C. G. Ingram has a fine lot of Cotswold sheep which compare favorably with any on the ground.

John Minto, of Marion county, is also here with a lot of French and Spanish Merino which are admired by all who see them.

Stewart & Sons, of North Yamhill, are here with the finest herd of short-horned Durham cattle ever shown in the State. They have both the short-horned Durham and the Holstein German stock, imported by themselves. Many of their cattle are worthy of special mention, which they shall have after the premiums are awarded.

D. O. Burkhart is here with a fine lot of Berkshire hogs which are admired by everybody. No other exhibitors are ready to show their stock.

Col. Nesmith spoke at the Court House last night to a crowded house. Judge Kelsay, of Corvallis, spoke in behalf of Hi. Smith, and Ben Hayden, of Polk, followed.

To-day promises to be more lively than yesterday. Mr. A. J. Dufur is now delivering the annual address. The receipts at the gate yesterday went $180 above the receipts of the second day of last year's Fair.

LATEST NEWS ITEMS.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 18.—The Society of the Army of the Cumberland held a session this morning, and selected Columbus, O., as the place of the next meeting. They re-elected Lieutenant-General Sheridan President, and instructed the committee on the Thomas monument to employ some artist to make the statue of General Thomas, and adjourned.

Maurice H. Richardson, of Fitchburg, Mass., a Harvard graduate of the present year, has just performed the extraordinary feat of swimming all the way from the stone pier at Falmouth across to Martha's Vineyard, a distance of seven miles and a half, in two hours and fifty-five minutes. A friend escorted him with with a boat, but gave no assistance.

VIENNA, Sept. 18.—The publication of the Vaterland newspaper of this city has been suspended, and its bureau seized by the police, because it published an attack on the King of Italy while he was the guest of the Emperor. Many ultramontanes belonging to the Imperial court, and leading members of society here, have left the city to avoid meeting Victor Emanuel.

MERIDEN, Miss., Sept. 17.—The Democratic State Convention met here to-day and adopted, by a vote of 98 to 40, a resolution declaring it inexpedient to make any nominations for State officers. Resolutions had been previously adopted, pledging all the members of the Convention to its aid. This action is equivalent to a pledge to support the action of the Republicans, whose convention meets at Jackson to-morrow.

The Farmers' movement has completely demoralized both of the old parties in Illinois but the Democrats seem to have been the most shattered. At the election of last year there were forty-five counties which gave Democratic majorities. In only twelve of these have the Democrats made nominations this year. In sixteen they have formally disbanded their organization; in eight they have called conventions which are expected to do nothing except disband, and in the remaining nine counties the situation is uncertain.

General Lawler, the contractor, has completed the pontoon railroad bridge at Prairie du Chien, across the east channel of the Mississippi river, and trains are now crossing upon it. This bridge is formed by a track laid upon piles to the channel, which is here three hundred feet wide. Across the opening two pontoons are stretched, on which rails are laid, and an apron connects them with the track on the piling. The invention is one of Mr. Lawler's, the contractor, and the success of it opens a new era in railroad crossings on the principal rivers.

Peru now possesses a railway across the Andes, which is represented to be the greatest modern triumph of engineering skill. Passing from the sea coast directly over the mountains into the interior, it ascends by a long series of remarkably easy grades and beautiful curves to the highest point ever reached by a locomotive, and through some of the finest scenery of the South American mountain regions. Among other attractions of the route is the celebrated Lake Titicaca, the shores of which are skirted by the railway, and which is the highest body of water in the world. The greatest elevation on the line is 14,663 feet, at which altitude the summer temperature drops as low as 34 degrees, and July snow storms are no novelty.

FRIDAY MORNING SEPT 26 1873

THE FEELING IN SOUTHERN OREGON

In this morning's paper will be found a letter from Douglas county on the situation as it appears in that section of the State The writer of this letter is a life long Republican, and never cast a Democratic vote in his life The effect of the attempt to bind the consciences of the Republicans of the State and force the endorsement by the party at large of sentiments that are alike repugnant to the teachings of all Christian civilization and violative of the natural principles of morality, are but too manifest. There is a moral instinct in the human breast that protests against all interference by a political convention with the freedom of individual judgment upon moral questions All true party men recognize the obligations of party usage and are willing to be bound thereby upon all questions of a strictly political character To surrender the conscience further than this is not only not demanded by party fealty but inconsistent with the conscientious discharge of a citizen's duties. We cannot, however, join our correspondent in the [illegible] to vote for the Democratic candidate. Why vote at all?

Our [illegible] certainly intends to [illegible] a joke, when he speaks of 69 [illegible] for the kalsomining resolution. There were just 44 men willing to [illegible] thing less than half the number [illegible]. Those men made up their [illegible] by [illegible] of proxies, and we [illegible] reliable information that some of those whose proxies were cast for the [illegible] would have voted against it [illegible] been present, and are not at all [illegible] about the terms in which they [illegible] their indignation at the use made [illegible].

THE MASSACHUSETTS PLATFORM

[illegible] other column will be found the [illegible] of the platform adopted by the [illegible] Convention We commend it [illegible] as the earnest, fear[illegible] of a genuine Republican[illegible] not an insincere syllable can be [illegible] any of the resolutions. Dema[illegible] serving politicians had [illegible] to do with framing its staunch [illegible]. The people were assembled in [illegible] in answer to the appeals of [illegible], and in this specimen of their [illegible] have declared in unmis[illegible] their wants. First of all [illegible] suffrage is advocated. [illegible] to the primitive [illegible]. All forms of [illegible] the interfer[illegible] in local politics [illegible] and the nation is [illegible] the first "[illegible] duty [illegible] and puri[illegible] are called up to [illegible] the commonwealth and [illegible] and corruption" [illegible] epitomized is rascal[illegible] and all grades [illegible] in the public [illegible] no shelter under cloak [illegible]. We ask the [illegible] of Oregon [illegible] thoroughly digest the [illegible] in the [illegible].

[illegible] TARIFF ADVANCED AGAIN

[illegible] of the Umpqua Valley, in a [illegible] business letter, says the [illegible] to Portland has been [illegible] so that the charge is now [illegible] than before the [illegible] consequence, the farmers are greatly discouraged, as competi[illegible] other sections of the State is [illegible]. It would seem as if the rail[illegible] simply watched the fluctu[illegible] of wheat and adjusted [illegible] so as to draw to itself every cent [illegible] could possibly stand [illegible] certainly are entitled to [illegible] advance in the market price of their [illegible]. This is simple justice If the [illegible] could transport wheat for a given [illegible] when the value of the grain [illegible] cents per bushel, why must it have [illegible] more when the wheat is worth [illegible]? This is a question that farm[illegible] like to have answered It is a [illegible] that affects their pockets, that [illegible] ability to support and educate [illegible].

[illegible] Umpqua feels, the Wallamet val[illegible] also, were it not for the [illegible] and the opposition line [illegible] which the locks render possible [illegible] of tariff on the railway would [illegible] in the storage of the [illegible] boating season, and that is a [illegible] railway extortion

GOOD FOR SOMETHING

The ring journal says every Republican [illegible] in the State except the OREGONIAN [illegible] the swallowing of the kalso[illegible] platform How about the Dalles [illegible], a staunch Republican journal edited by a Republican of the old line [illegible] a personal friend of the Senator? [illegible] about the Yamhill Reporter al[illegible] an unwavering Republican paper? [illegible] about the Walla Walla Union [illegible] and unflinching Republican paper [illegible] though published on the Washington Territory side of the line has a large [illegible] and influence in Eastern Oregon? These are all outspoken and unequivocal in their condemnation of the whitewashing job The Bulletin's mode of reasoning is. No paper that opposes this dishonor is Republican Ergo all the Republican papers favor the dishonor The Bulletin, thus reasoning in a circle, comes out at the same hole it goes in at every time. Davy Crocket it is said thought the ability to do this was a good recommendation for a possum dog If any of Davy's descendants are in want of an animal of that sort, we commend the Bulletin to their favorable notice

The Custom House part of the [illegible] ship" of the Bulletin intimates that [illegible] has committed grave irregularities in connection with his official position, and demands that we guess what it is that he is guilty of and then prove it on him We give up the conundrum, and of course the [illegible] falls [illegible] he will make the [illegible] When he does so we apprehend the [illegible] will not be difficult to obtain

PROGRESS OF DENOMINATIONS

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We have lately examined the annual reports of leading Christian sects These documents are recording a progress which is going on silently and they are furnishing materials for future historians The speculative philosopher also in trying to account for the moral improvements which are gaining ground will study the documents annually issued by the religious denominations with profit and interest The moralist the patriot and the philanthropist will discover items of information which will enlarge his views of the means and agencies that the different sects are employing to enlighten the public and make proselytes. And the statistician will find some of his most important figures and estimates set forth in these reports

A large volume of this character has just come under our notice It is entitled the "Minutes of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America for 1873"

Its exhibit of churches, membership and results for the year must be very gratifying to supporters of that numerous and influential denomination Among its clergy we note the names of some of the most eminent preachers and scholars in the country and among the lay delegates men who have a national reputation for worth and ability

The benevolent and propagative agencies of the Church are thoroughly organized over the whole country and are admirably worked judging by results These operations extend to every continent and almost every country on the face of the earth

The following is a partial summary remarking that the figures are incomplete in consequence of the failure of many churches to report progress

There are nearly five thousand preachers and as many churches There are nearly half a million of church members and as many scholars in Sunday schools There were forty seven thousand communicants added during the year There were seventy five ministers received from other denominations The contributions reported for various objects amount to nine millions six hundred and twenty-two dollars,—every dollar a voluntary offering If all the gifts for charitable and civilizing objects bestowed during the year by this Church could be summed up it would swell the amount by several millions

The Southern Presbyterians who separated themselves during the war from this Church have not returned, although the 'olive branch' has been held out to them There are three or four other branches of the Presbyterian family, the Cumberland, the United and the 'Reformers,' both Dutch and German The population attached to these branches of the Presbyterian family must number several millions in the United States

Upon a survey of the progress of the different sects in the aggregate, it is apparent that Christianity is gaining proselytes faster than the population is gaining numbers A sum in "The Rule of Three" based on these facts, might lead to predictions more reasonable than those which modern prophets usually put forth, and thus the epoch might be foreshadowed when Christianity will take possession of all of us

The Carmel (N Y) Monitor is urging the re-enactment of the free exchange newspaper law It has some very excellent reasons among which we notice this: That the repeal of the law was a positive advance towards an extinction of local newspapers to make room for large, monopolizing city newspapers. It has discovered another thing "A curious phenomenon, of late frequently observed in divers quarters, is another instance of this same policy, newspaper after newspaper, 'local' or 'provincial,' will be found having in its telegraphic column an item like the following: 'The New York Blowgun of to-morrow will say so-and-so,' and then follows a paragraph not of news but of editorial This, of course has a direct tendency to discredit the local paper, for the reader says 'Ah! then the important thing is not what my editor says but what the New York Blowgun man says I guess I'll stop my paper and take the Blowgun' There never was a more ingenious device to induce men to cut their own throats for the good of somebody else

We were favored yesterday with a copy of the manifesto written by Messrs Scott and Mitchell, and signed by Hiram Smith Esq —the same document we mentioned some days since as in process of incubation We did not however get to read it through as carefully as we suppose a pamphlet coming out under such circumstances is entitled to be read Some person, a friend of the ostensible author, we presume captured it and carried it away This was very considerate If Hiram could only be influenced by some true friend like the one who put this document out of sight the entire edition would be suppressed But since this is not to be done we shall endeavor to give our readers an opportunity to see the manifesto

The ex Queen of Spain is defendant in an action instituted by her husband who accuses his wife of squandering her fortune in political enterprises and extravagant amusements She was, he says, worth 1,000,000 francs a year when she went to live in Paris but since then her income has dwindled down to 500,000 and if she's allowed to go on as she seems inclined to do she will in a few years be penniless

We once heard a lady say she thought sometimes that the most truly devotional portions of the Psalms of David were those where in the sweet singer wanted to "show up" his enemies The same is said to be the condition of one of our public functionaries Cutting off back pay is what's the matter

U S STEAMER SARANAC

OLYMPIA W T Sept [illegible] 1873

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Through the kindness of Capt Lawson U S Coast Survey your correspondent received an invitation from Admiral Pennock to visit the U S war steamer Saranac and about noon to-day a large number of our most respectable [illegible] started down the bay to where the steamer lay The stern of the vessel had been gaily decorated with flags which gave it the appearance of a regular ball room and when I arrived the [illegible] were tripping the light fantastic [illegible] on board and everybody seemed perfectly at home and if they [illegible] it was [illegible] by the [illegible] of the [illegible] they did all in their power to make [illegible] to all [illegible] on board including officers and [illegible] reigns supreme [illegible] deserted on this trip and [illegible] one unfortunate brought in by the Marshal who arrested him as he was [illegible]. This steamer carries [illegible] and [illegible] eleven inch [illegible] six brass [illegible] be the finest in any steamer in the service.

I think the officers have had more enjoyment during their short stay than in any other place on the Sound and many regret their departure which will take place to-morrow morning at 4 o'clock the Admiral having to-day received orders to leave for San Francisco and take charge of the Richmond which has just arrived here and which will hereafter be the flag-ship The dancing is still going on and will probably be kept up all night. THE PROSPECT IN DOUGLAS

DOUGLAS COUNTY Sept [illegible] 18[illegible]

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

From present indications the October election will not only end in overwhelming defeat but in complete rout to the disciples of Hipple Douglas county which gave the lamented Wilson a large vote will now give J W Nesmith not less than 600 majority [illegible] sentiment is deeply, earnestly [illegible] the banner precinct of Republicanism during the war and [illegible] feeble support of party [illegible] in opposition there [illegible] ticket whereas there are many Republicans who boldly avow their intention of voting for Nesmith while many others propose to abstain from voting at all In Oakland—at the largest precinct in the county and heretofore largely Republican—the Democratic majority will not fall short of [illegible] votes as he now expresses himself the total Republican vote will not exceed [illegible] and this from a voting population of at least 300 a majority of which has hitherto been Republican These estimates may seem absolutely unreasonable not to say wild but a free mingling among the voters and a hearing of their sentiments will amply justify the above figures as the election returns will surely confirm their correctness Other precincts will exhibit a like proportionate condemnation of the unauthorized impolitic and unjust action of the Republican Convention The people of this county were from the first warm admirers of ex-Senator Corbett, and yielded with reluctance to the unfortunate election of John M Hipple now J H Mitchell, and they will not now and under present circumstances pause to express their unqualified repudiation

THE ISSUE.

As now presented by the Democratic and accepted by the Republican Convention is simply Is polygamy right? Upon examination of the principles of both parties as enunciated in their respective platforms but little material or practicable difference is discernible The twaddle as to the strict construction of the Constitution centralization of power etc is mere buncombe, inserted in the Democratic platform as sop to Cerberus—a balm to Confederates in recompense for the nomination of a man who voted men and means to preserve the Union and who was perfectly willing to throw the strict construction centralization humbug to the dogs rather than defeat a vigorous prosecution of the war—that the nation might live As to the tariff plank that is equally buncombe it being well known that men irrespective of party but solely with locality and local interests in view either approve or disapprove the sentiments in question

A New England Democratic Convention could not put forth such resolutions without extreme party peril In Pennsylvania they might possibly be endorsed but with the express reservation as to iron and coal With our extremely diversified interests—manufacturing in the New England and Middle States and agricultural in the Southern and Western—it is absurd to expect men to favor a sentiment in conflict with their material local interests and hence this question must ever remain in our extended country more a sectional than a national issue—more to be compromised than combatted The Democratic nominee can bring about no revolution on either of the above planks first because his own history is inconsistent with the strict construction centralization theory as per his record in the U S Senate and more especially when he is reminded of one gloomy day at Manassas Junction, and secondly on the tariff hobby he will find as many Democrats to oppose as to support it. The monopoly provision in their platform has the right ring It is this one great question which is now sounding through the East and the West, from the Lakes to the Gulf, and which is banding the country in a steadfast purpose to vindicate the right of the people to restrain by proper legislative control the unbounded and excessive power of the great corporations and powerful monopolies which are now dictating terms to all branches of industry to their own aggrandizement

THE DUTY

The destiny of every republic being wielded by direct agency of the sovereign people it is the duty of each citizen of such to exercise the right reserved to him and to participate in every movement affecting the welfare of state Should he fail in this, he should be estopped from commenting adversely to the result The proceedings of both Conventions stripped of all verbiage mainly presents the issue Is polygamy right? On this ultimatum—greater than any political question, as it affects the society the moral foundation of a community without which no Government or system of laws can long survive—every voter in the State should take his stand It is a plain direct proposition unencumbered by any metaphysical doubts but presents itself directly to the interests the hopes the affections the pride of every man—is it right?

The nominee of the Republican Convention in accepting the nomination is reported to have said I indorse the platform and the Mitchell resolution too This nominee as pure a man as he may be thus expressly and voluntarily embodies within himself the representative principle contained in the Mitchell resolution and however faithful a citizen Mr Smith himself may be yet he cannot gainsay the fact that every vote cast for him is an indorsement of that adulterous resolution

In other States the result here is looked upon not without interest? Are the people of Oregon in favor of polygamy? The October vote will answer this doubt but only as the result appears against either of the two prominent nominees To vote for a third individual not officially before the people and who has never publicly expressed himself on this question is merely blending the issue Every Hipple advocate in Oregon will however point to the small and insignificant vote for a third man and claim it as the total strength of anti Hipple Republicans and going to Washington they will repeat the boast and further claim the large vote of the Democracy but as a representation merely of political power adverse to Republican ascendency brought about by general apathy among regular Republicans not voting this being a special election in which little interest was manifested etc How is this to be denied? Who is to say there were not more Hipple Republicans remaining at home than anti Hipplers? Had it been understood in time that a third man was willing to test this question on his candidacy in opposition to polygamy then his friends might have rallied Now it is too late This being the all engrossing issue the enemies to polygamy should stand united [illegible] the people [illegible] the [illegible] go to Washington side by side with the [illegible] sixty nine [illegible] Mr Mitchell urged the resolution through that he might be [illegible] in the estimation of the Senate [illegible] which will an honorable Senate [illegible] more respect—to that of sixty nine men or to a vote of the people representing [illegible] 000 majority [illegible] Democrats and Republicans [illegible] Republicans do not [illegible] their political principles by such a vote [illegible] presented [illegible] being paramount [illegible] [illegible] conventions is not [illegible] that [illegible] may be [illegible] Convention [illegible] principle on a party but [illegible] other thing [illegible] that party [illegible] endorse [illegible] DOUGLAS

KICKED. A young man named Walter Robinson, aged about 20 years, was kicked by a horse on Wednesday at the corner of Seventh and Sherman streets and sustained very severe injuries. He went out into the stable to harness up a small mare. As he approached the animal, holding the harness in his hands the mare apparently without any reason kicked with both feet. One hoof struck him square in the face, the cork of the shoe cutting a terrible gash between his eyes just above the nose. The blow was so sudden and powerful that it knocked Mr Robinson prostrate. He regained his feet but was blind and crazed by the kick. Groping about the stable not knowing what he was doing Robinson ran up against the animal which again dealt him a heavy kick. This time one hoof struck him at the right corner of the mouth cutting a gash nearly one inch in length, lacerating with the ragged edge of the shoe the flesh and knocking out several teeth. On receiving the second kick Robinson uttered a loud cry, which attracted the attention of a gentleman near by. He rushed to the stable and assisted the young man out. Medical assistance was summoned and the wounds carefully and skillfully dressed. Robinson at last accounts was able to walk around the streets. The only thing which saved his life was the fact that he was so close to the heels of the animal. Had he been standing a few feet further off his skull would inevitably have been broken.

MALHEUR INDIAN RESERVATION.—In speaking of this Reservation the Albert says: The Malheur is a new Reservation situated in the southeastern part of Grant county about 300 miles from the Dalles. It is about 70 miles square and includes some excellent grass land, but is mostly valuable for its wild game and fish. The Malheur is a branch of the Snake river and at the proper season abounds in salmon and other fish. Some 500 wild Snake and Piute Indians were collected and put on this Reservation and kept in peace and quietness all during the Modoc war by the judicious management of the Commissary Agent in charge Mr S B Parrish. These Indians are very poor, but as we learn they are naturally smart and quick-witted, possessing not only great physical endurance but intellectual capacities, apparently superior to most other Indians. Mr Parrish is now in this city looking after business connected with the management of the Indian Department and expects to return to his Agency in a few days. There will probably be 1 000 Indians on the Reservation during the coming winter.

DROWNED.—A man named William Watson was drowned on Wednesday night from off the barge Nez Perces Chief while that craft was on the way down to St Helens in tow of the Jane McNear. In company with several other men Watson was employed to go down to assist in changing the wheat on board some of the sailing vessels. The barge started from Portland on Wednesday evening about 8 o'clock. While on the way down Watson fell overboard and was undoubtedly drowned. He was not missed until early yesterday morning. How he came to lose his life will probably never be known. Around the guards of the barge are no railings and it is a reasonable supposition that Watson, while walking around in the darkness, lost his balance, and fell into the river. Watson was aged about 35 years, and unmarried. He was a native of Scotland, an industrious man, and well known in Portland among the longshoremen. So far as known he has no relations in this country.

WAITING FOR RAIN.—The Tualatin River Navigation Company's steamers Onward and Henrietta are both lying above Oswego, at the mouth of the canal which connects the lake and river. Neither boat has been running for some months, in consequence of the low stage of water. When the fall rains begin to swell the volume of water in the river and lake, the Onward will be dispatched to the head of navigation—Hillsboro. Great quantities of wheat are being stored at the warehouses along the river, to await the resumption of navigation. After the principal rush of freight is over, the Onward will be hauled off and the Henrietta will take the place.

OLD LINE.—The old telegraph line on the [illegible] side, extending to St. Joe along the Oregon Central Railroad has been changed from a point just north of Marquam's Gulch down to the office at the corner of F and North Front streets. Since the line was first established, it ran along Fourth street down to the railroad office. A few days ago the old line was torn down and placed on a different street. Commencing at a point near the railroad bridge, the wire was stretched down to Front street and then attached to the poles which extend along that street to the northward, until the office was reached.

REVISED CODE.—Judge M P Deady, one of the Code Commissioners, on a recent visit to Salem, delivered a large amount of the new Code as revised, codified and annotated by him, to Gov Grover. He has already prepared a large proportion of the Code and it is in a suitable condition for publication. The criminal portions of the Statutes have been revised and arranged by Mr Lafayette Lane, the other Commissioner assisted by Mr S C Simpson, and will soon be ready for the printers. All the manuscript will be prepared and handed to the Governor by the 1st of November.

BAGGAGE, PASSENGERS AND MAILS.—The time of the sailing of the steamer Ajax has been deferred until Saturday, at 12 o'clock M. Early to-morrow morning the Ajax will be dispatched down the river to take advantage of the tide. The steamer will be sent down as far as St Helens where she will be joined by the E N Cooke. This last mentioned boat will leave the Steamship Company's dock at noon on Saturday. Passengers, baggage, mails and the express will be conveyed down to the Ajax and placed on board.

OFF TILLAMOOK.—While the steamer Ajax was on the way from San Francisco to Portland she passed the bark Free Trade also bound for this port off Tillamook Head. She was beating along up the coast and is probably in the river ere this. Several other vessels are overdue here but nothing has been heard from any of them except the Free Trade.

BRACING THE WHARF.—The immense quantities of wheat which are piled on the second floor of Flanders wharf has rendered it necessary to brace up some of the timbers which rest on the top of the piles. Yesterday a number of carpenters were engaged in hoisting the stringers by means of screw power and placing under strong pieces of timber.

LECTURE ON MARRIAGE.—The above will constitute the subject of a lecture which is to be delivered at the Court House this evening, by Prof Stephen Doe. This gentleman came from San Francisco on the last steamer and seems to be well recommended by a number of prominent men of that city. Full particulars are given in the advertisement.

TEARING UP.—A force of men began yesterday morning to tear up a portion of the plank roadway at the foot of Stark street. Excavation began for the laying of a sewer. All the required tile is ready and will be laid down as soon as the ditch is dug.

ARRIVED.—The steamer [illegible] this port last night at [illegible] and way ports bringing [illegible] and full freight.

BOAT RACE AND TARGET EXCURSION.

At nine o'clock yesterday morning the Fannie Patton steamed away from the foot of Washington street with the Washington Guard numbering twenty two muskets officered by Captain Horatio Cook and Lieutenants Al Sutherland and Wm Abernethy, six members of the Emmet Guard in uniform under command of Lieut Storan, the crews of the boats entered for the race and about one hundred persons who went to see the day's sport. An hour's ride brought us to the grounds of Jonathan Moar on the Willamette Slough side of Sauvie's Island. On landing, the military marched to the platform where the arms were stacked. Following this came

THE BOAT RACE.

Two boats were entered, the Occidental, by Mr Laschapelle, manned by [illegible] stroke; A L Fox No 3; W Fowler No 2; [illegible] bow. Dreadnaught by [illegible] manned by A McGraw stroke; G M Mallesky No 3; J N Kearney No 2; [illegible] Campbell bow. After the judges, [illegible] Cahalin, R Wiley and D F Harrington had been selected, the boats were ordered in line. The signal, a gunshot being given, the boats sped away up the river, the Dreadnaught having several feet advantage. This the boys in the Occidental overcame by their long stroke, one disadvantage, however being observable that of failing to recover quickly. The other crew pulled a quick stroke, taking little water and thus losing ground against the sweeping stroke of their opponents. The Occidental crew kept gaining and when the rounding stake was reached about one and one fourth mile from the starting point they had opened a gap of about three lengths between them and their competitors. The boys made a hard stake turn and the opposing crew lost some time by rounding with the stroke and No 3. On the home stretch the Occidentals kept their lead and came in at the finish about six lengths in advance. Time 19:20. Distance about two and one-half miles.

Previous to the start the Dreadnaught crew were the favorites, the main reliance of their friends and outsiders being on the crew who were slender, muscular men and the fact that two had been successful in other contests. The Occidental crew were composed of young fellows whose average weight was about 130 pounds—the average of the other crew being about 145 pounds. The long sweeping stroke of the boys told the tale and the advantage of weight also aided in a measure. The race concluded all debarked and lunch then being in order, that necessary item was discussed, following which came the

TARGET SHOOTING

Of the Washington Guard for prizes and a contest between six men from the Emmet and Washington Guards for an ox. Distance 142 yards—three shots allowed to each man.

The shooting occupied the greater part of the afternoon. The Judges selected were Capt Campbell, Major Cahalin, Capt Wiley and Mr D F Harrington, who awarded the Eighth Prize—Order for a vest, A B Stuart. Presented by Fishel & Roberts.

Ninth Prize—Silver trade dollar, R Austin. Presented by Al. Zieber.

Tenth Prize—One pair sleeve buttons, Chas H Newell. Presented by Clarke Henderson & Cook.

Eleventh Prize—A rug, P Maloney. Presented by W H D Joyce.

Twelfth Prize—A flask and the leather medal, Wm Bowden. Presented by Wm Beck & Son and J B Congle.

OFFICERS' PRIZES.

Officers' prizes were distributed in the following order:

First Prize—A silver cup, Lieut Wm Abernethy. Presented by Dekum & Bickel.

Second Prize—Case of perfumery, Captain H Cook. Presented by S G Skidmore.

Third Prize—A cigar holder, Lieut Al Sutherland. Presented by Oppenheimer & Ackerman.

Picture presented by Alisky & Hegele, case of perfumery, by Davis & Schuyler, books by A B Richardson, and Album by Chas Skidmore, were presented to the Company.

A pair of gauntlets from J O'Neil & Co, were presented by the Company to Jas Liddy.

Six of the most accurate marksmen were selected from each of the companies—Washington and Emmet Guards—to compete for a prize consisting of a large fat ox presented by Jonathan Moar. The contest was close and spirited, but was won by Mr A J Barlow, of the Emmet Guard, who is entitled to the credit of having made the best single shot of the day.

Capt Alex Campbell of the City Rifles, one of the Judges, made the second best shot.

Those who did not care to see the target shooting spent the time in playing foot ball, dancing and wandering about the island.

INCIDENTS.

During the day the Portland City Brass Band discoursed excellent music considering the small number of the members present. They feel so confident of success that they intend visiting the State Fair for the purpose of competing for the prize. They have advanced very much since we heard them a few weeks ago and will prove a strong combination to compete against.

Capt Cahalin brought home a string of Sauvie's Island Snipe. He is proud of the trophies. Well we won't say he killed them; they only dropped on account of the numerous shots which missed widely the target.

Some of the residents of Sauvie's Island got happy and amused themselves in various ways.

Two young men from this city made a raid on a corn field—roasting ears for two, the consequence.

Four youths rowed down from Portland in a small boat. They didn't go back the same way.

In making a landing on the slough, a gang plank was accidentally dropped. That event occasioned a delay of several minutes on the up trip. At 8 P M the boat reached the city.

To Mr I Gatens those attending are indebted for the pleasure of witnessing so many attractions on Willamette Slough yesterday.

DOWN RIVER ITEMS.

The following items we glean from the Astorian:

It is reported that Pen Holladay is having a tug boat constructed at Coos Bay for use on the Columbia river.

We understand that Charlie Parker is going to Bay View fishery to take charge of the neat little steamer Orient, recently purchased by Mr R D Hume of that place.

After discharging the Northern Pacific Railroad Company's freight at Kalama and a steamboat load or two for Portland the steamship Ibthorn resumed her voyage inland.

The total taxable property in Clatsop county is: Gross value of all property $402,7[illegible]; indebtedness $274,[illegible]; exemptions $[illegible]; total taxable property $[illegible].

Cape Foulweather light is in charge of Messrs Crosby, Jessup and J C Mann, who are said to be gentlemanly keepers and take pleasure in showing strangers through the establishment.

Cougars in the vicinity of Knappton are so tame that they walk right into the [illegible] and don't come out [illegible] at any hour of the night. Mr J P Knapp has lost several [illegible] sheep and [illegible] the past week by such [illegible].

Mrs B A [illegible] [illegible] Mr Davis [illegible] [illegible] and Salmon [illegible] [illegible] privately [illegible] [illegible] M [illegible] [illegible] evening [illegible]

NEW OPENING.—Messrs Harris [illegible] have [illegible] the corner of Front and Alder streets. A full stock of [illegible] on hand—[illegible].

Emil, Lowenstein & Co., recently burned out by the great fire, have removed their stock of Carpets, Curtains, Coverings, etc, to No [illegible] FRONT STREET between Washington and Alder, where they can be found, selling off the entire Stock AT COST, in order to start soon in new quarters with an Entire New Stock. All persons indebted to them are requested to call at their temporary place of business and settle up.

The [illegible] at the fall term of the Circuit Court will be drawn to-day.

The Willamette River Transportation Company are only waiting for more water to put [illegible] three or four boats.

The City Rifles will hold a [illegible] this evening [illegible] by the [illegible] Capt Campbell.

The [illegible] will carry down the river [illegible] on board the [illegible]

The little craft [illegible] which is being [illegible] schooner at Westport will be put on the Sandwich Islands trade when finished.

The Rev W A Tenney of Astoria will occupy the pulpit at the First Congregational Church on Sunday both morning and evening.

The attendance of pupils at our public schools in this city is said to be larger than in San Francisco in proportion to school population.

A small but valuable skiff broke from its moorings yesterday at the foot of Oak street and drifted off. We are unable to state whose or where it was overhauled.

Capt Mountain's Sitkan bear is as fat as a beaver. Although he is securely fastened at the end of a long chain on the dock, he makes dogs and men stand around.

J F Jones & Son will move into their new building about the first proximo with new and enlarged machinery. The engine is being built at the Oregon Iron Works.

One of our cotemporaries is responsible for the statement that a patient at the Insane Asylum offered to loan Jay Cooke & Co the sum of $4 000 000 the other morning.

An exchange says: "At Long Branch recently a six year old girl appeared at a ball in a lace dress that cost $900. That little child also wore diamond earrings, necklace and rings. Five years ago this same child's father was a barkeeper in California." The last sentence explains all. Something ought to be done to prevent barkeepers from getting rich so fast.

London critics differ curiously in their estimate of Joaquin Miller's "Life Among the Modocs." The Globe says that "as a book of adventures no fresher or more entertaining work of the kind has appeared in a generation," and rashly guarantees its historical truth. The Saturday Review rather pooh poohs it after its usual fashion and the Athenæum pronounces it "a monstrously dull book" and its author a "scoundrel."

A spirited engraving is just out entitled "Out all Night" which tells the story of a "curtain lecture" at a glance. The figures are high bred terriers; the lady terrier is lying on a rug with her little ones nestling on her paws and over each other, sleeping the calm sleep of the innocent; the gentleman terrier presents himself with his mantle dragging by his side, a bandage around his head, indications of a lame foot and an evident fear of the scolding which is flashed from the eyes of his consort who appears to say: "A pretty time of night this is to come home!"

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

PERSONAL, LOCAL AND GENERAL, ETC.

[From the P C Advocate.]

At the teachers' meeting of Taylor street M E Sunday School on Tuesday evening a new constitution was adopted which provides for an election of officers to take place on next Tuesday evening.

Rev S L Powell spent last Sabbath in this city, preaching an excellent sermon at Hall street M E Church in the morning. He is appointed at Baker City and we predict for him a successful year.

Rev H K Hines spent last Sabbath in Vancouver, preaching at the quarterly meeting both morning and evening. Having finished his work on the minutes, he has returned to his home in Walla Walla.

North Portland M E Sunday School, we are glad to learn, is prospering finely. The attendance is good, both of teachers and scholars. The location is corner of D and North Ninth street, Couch's Addition.

Bishop Foster was to embark August 25th on the steamer Britannia of the Royal Mail or Navigation Line. She is a new boat—her first voyage. The Bishop was in good health, and expected to be in New York early in November.

It has been decided by the teachers of the Hall street M E Sabbath School to give monthly concerts for the benefit of the school. The first one will be given on Wednesday evening October 1st. The following exercises may be expected: Singing by the school, prayer, pastor's welcome address, singing, school recitation, solo and chorus, class examination, reading, singing, school Latin recitation with translation, singing, address, valedictory.

[From the Catholic Sentinel.]

A solemn Requiem Mass was sung at the Cathedral Victoria, on Tuesday last for the repose of the soul of Father J DeCrene, lately deceased.

Rev G C Thibau has been designated by the Rev Archbishop to take charge of St John's Church, Salem, presently under charge of Rev Julian DeCrene, deceased.

The Catholics of Eastern Oregon will be gratified to learn that venerable Archbishop Rev F N Blanchet intends to visit that portion of the archdiocese at an early day.

DRAMATIC AND MUSICAL.

Madame Bishop and troupe have gone to Virginia City.

Mlle Gaugain is performing at Woodward's Gardens.

S W Piercy is playing with the "New Magdalene" troupe at Los Angeles, California.

At last accounts Vivian and troupe were traveling through interior California bound for Oregon.

Mr Harry Edwards, who visited this city some time ago, is playing "Old Man" at the California Theater.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR CLACKAMAS COUNTY.

OREGON CITY, Sept 25, 1873.

Circuit Court [illegible] through except [illegible] next term. Court will probably adjourn this evening. The grand jury was discharged yesterday morning, having found but one indictment.

The grand jury report [illegible] in regard to the county buildings is as follows:

We the grand jury respectfully report that we have visited the various offices of the county and find them well kept. The jail has been recently cleaned and is sufficient in our judgment for the safe keeping of all prisoners [illegible] vigilance [illegible] in charge.

JAMES WINSTON, Foreman.

The following is a synopsis of business transacted up to 2d of [illegible] day:

Martha Van Murdock and Ellen Murdock, her husband, vs Wm A [illegible] and Henry Carrett, executors of the last will and testament of Robert Allen, deceased; judgment for [illegible] and costs.

Wm Mullins and L O H [illegible] vs H [illegible] & H [illegible]; suit for [illegible] sale confirmed.

[illegible] Otis and [illegible] vs [illegible] Alfred [illegible]; suit in equity to foreclose mortgage; sale of premises confirmed.

[illegible] McDonald vs Elias Mosher; suit to recover money; verdict for defendant.

State of Oregon vs Leonard Dill; [illegible] writ of review from Justice's Court; judgment reversed, defendant to recover costs.

S [illegible] Smith vs Charles Cutting and Abigail Cutting; suit to recover money; decree for plaintiff.

Thomas Charman vs Elmer E Charman, Leonard L Charman and Mary M Charman; Arthur Warner appointed referee for the purpose of selling real estate owned by all the parties jointly; decree dividing the proceeds to be made hereafter.

Henry B Lamb vs Sarah J Lamb; suit for divorce; decree of divorce granted.

Thomas Charman vs H L Pittock & Co; suit to recover money; judgment for plaintiff.

S R Smith vs Willamette Freighting Co; suit to recover money; verdict of jury for plaintiff.

Jacob Wortman vs Rebecca K Barbour et al; suit to foreclose mortgage; judgment for plaintiff by default.

Base ball is undoubtedly good exercise and capital amusement, but it often occasions bunged eyes, broken skins and blistered hands. We can tell you that in all such cases if Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is resorted to it will reduce the swelling and stop the pain.

We would not recommend the frequent or constant use of any medicine. It is important to take even a good article judiciously. Parsons' Purgative Pills are safe, prompt and reliable as a laxative or cathartic.

COLEMAN'S EUCALYPTUS

Dr J S Coleman's Compound Extract of Eucalyptus is a preparation combining all the valuable medical qualities of the Eucalyptus which is cultivated in nearly every California garden for its medical utility, having become the household remedy for all diseases of the KIDNEYS, BLADDER and URINARY CANAL, and SEMINAL WEAKNESS. It seems to have a direct affinity for the GENITO URINARY ORGANS and their surroundings and cures them by its alterative, healing and balsamic properties more effectually than any other known remedy.

It is an invaluable remedy for all diseases of the mucous and serous membranes, such as BRONCHITIS, HACKING COUGH, NAUSEA DURING PREGNANCY, DYSPEPSIA, LEUCORRHŒA, etc.

This preparation is the result of Dr Coleman's experiments with the medicinal properties of the tree in the U S Marine Hospital in San Francisco in 1871 and 1872, where he had unusual facilities for testing the various methods of preparing the remedy and its uses. It can be relied upon as certain to give the [illegible] results, and hundreds of testimonials of its efficacy can be seen at his office 405 Kearney street, San Francisco.

COLEMAN'S DOUBLE EXTRACT OF EUCALYPTUS is a powerful yet harmless febrifuge, and is a special preparation for the treatment of the malarious fevers of our interior valleys, and is warranted to cure any case of FEVER AND AGUE treated with it according to directions, while the baneful results of the usual Quinine and arsenical remedies of those diseases are entirely avoided.

FOR PHYSICIANS, Coleman's Fluid Extract of Eucalyptus in 1 lb bottles.

Beware of imitations and take none but COLEMAN'S. For sale everywhere and by HODGE, CALEF & CO, Wholesale Druggists, Portland, Sole Agents for Oregon.

FRIDAY MORNING SEPT [illegible] 187[illegible]

MADRID.

THE CITY AND ITS PARKS

The climate of Madrid is such that it has become a household word all over [illegible] As hot as Madrid [illegible] Madrid [illegible] Alexandre Dumas [illegible] Lamartine speaks of the [illegible] heat and the distressing chills of Madrid [illegible] cold. Nevertheless [illegible] true child of Madrid [illegible] ever people passionately loved their own city it is the Madrileños. The Neapolitan [illegible] strangers to see their [illegible] city, and then die [illegible] talk and sing about their beloved [illegible] that the one on the bank of the [illegible] Danube. The [illegible] say that Moscow is holy, and that St Petersburg [illegible] ace. The Swede [illegible] the Venice of the North [illegible] with the greatest pride [illegible] of Berlin. The Saxons may well boast of their beautiful City of Dresden [illegible] call it the second [illegible] what is all this [illegible] arrogant praises bestowed by the people of Madrid upon their beloved city. [illegible] who has ever seen [illegible] on a more magnificent [illegible] Alcazar? Who has ever seen [illegible] than those of the museum? Who has ever strolled up and down a more splendid avenue than the Puerta del Sol? Who finally has ever recreated himself better in any public garden than in the parks of Madrid? Yes the [illegible] of Madrid. There are three of these public [illegible]—the famous Prado nearly two miles [illegible], from north to south on the eastern outskirts of the city, with superb and regular [illegible] and several fountains of surpassing beauty; the Paseo de las Delicias along the [illegible] of the Manzanares on the west side of the city, and the Buen Retiro gardens to the [illegible] beyond the Prado. Without these three [illegible] it is safe to assert life in Madrid [illegible] almost be intolerable; and none of the [illegible] of the unfortunate Iberian peninsula is not even those who seemed to take a delight in oppressing their people ever [illegible] to interfere with the inhabitants of [illegible] enjoying themselves in their peculiar [illegible] in these three public resorts. But [illegible] you must never visit in the day. Then everything looks deserted, the [illegible] and plants hang their leaves under the [illegible] influence of a pitiless sun the very [illegible] on the lawns yellow and drooping, and the ponds the water, receding as it is always [illegible] filthy, indicative of sluggishness and stagnation. Pedestrians you do [illegible] anywhere, only now and then a lazy [illegible] lolling in front of a restaurant, whom [illegible] call five times before he will answer [illegible] a "Si, Senor!" At the end of a fifteen [illegible] walk, you will ask yourself in [illegible], "Is this the famous Prado?" He would [illegible] to compare it with the Paris [illegible] de Bologne, with Hyde Park in London [illegible] in Vienna, or the Thiergarten [illegible] would absolutely appear to you an [illegible] But wait until the bells of the innumerable churches of Madrid have rung their vespers [illegible] wait until the fiery sun has sunk behind the [illegible] crests of Sierra Guadarama, and the [illegible] myriads of stars, with wonderful sparkle in the deep blue southern [illegible] until then, and you will find a new [illegible] stirring and fermenting life in the [illegible]. The balmy night air seems to infuse [illegible] into the sluggish blood of the [illegible]. They hasten to their beloved park, [illegible] by 9 o'clock it is thronged with [illegible] and fashion of the capital. Poets [illegible] of the charms of the fair [illegible] of Madrid. If you want to admire [illegible] all their [illegible] grace, if you want [illegible] in the dark depths of orbs [illegible] and arched with [illegible], just [illegible] through those [illegible] the Prado, and look and listen—such [illegible] such faultless contours, such [illegible] one of the noblest tongues [illegible] has given to mankind! But [illegible] that only the aristocracy of [illegible] of evenings in the park, [illegible] of the Prado. The plebeians [illegible] and the beautiful and charming [illegible] of the working girls, who [illegible] to the mantilla and the robozo, [illegible] to the animated scene [illegible] of the great pond! No [illegible] is more destitute of water [illegible] and the [illegible] of yachting [illegible] are unknown to the Madrilenos [illegible] on the mirror-like surface of the [illegible] of the Prado that they can enjoy [illegible] 1,000 yards in length. It [illegible] to [illegible] one of these famous [illegible] whose poverty prevents them [illegible] on the watery deep can buy, for a [illegible] or two, a seat on the estrade, where [illegible] their eyes upon [illegible] more fortunate than themselves, [illegible] on the only [illegible] sheet of water in [illegible]. For three or four hours the scene [illegible] Prado is most animated. The rich and [illegible] there as if the society of [illegible] the most democratic in the world. [illegible] with a lovely blonde girl [illegible] is the Marquis de Medina-Sidoni, [illegible] flows the blood alike of the an[illegible] of Spain and of the Moorish [illegible]. The handsome young fellow [illegible] him is Senor Escuvlaz the [illegible] of the Internationalists of Madrid [illegible] table sits General Daniel Sickles [illegible] of the United States. The tall [illegible], who jokes with them, and [illegible] the world looks like grim old Bu[illegible], is no other than Emilio Castelar, the [illegible] of Europe, and the noblest pa[illegible] of his own country. And then there is [illegible] music though, for, strange [illegible], the Spaniards of our times have hardly [illegible] music worth [illegible] of The [illegible] plays the plaintive notes of Verdi's [illegible] Il Trovatore, and next follows the [illegible] on the Rhine. Enthusiastic applause [illegible] the stirring German hymn for you [illegible] bear in mind that Spain and Germany [illegible] friends, even though old Emperor [illegible] has not yet recognized the Spanish Re[illegible]. The air is fragrant with floral odors and [illegible] of cigars, [illegible] is certain, and that is, that the [illegible] is nowhere smoked more fastid[illegible] in Madrid. The Madrilenos will [illegible] with anything but bad cigars. You [illegible] them, you may starve them, you [illegible] their thirst with the most abom[illegible], but never dare to offer them a [illegible] that does not come from "La Vuelta [illegible]". And, strangely enough, everybody in [illegible] Prado smokes good cigars, and the restaurants have but one quality. It is near mid[illegible], and the crowd begins to thin out. Lov[illegible] their dark-eyed Pepitas and Juanitas [illegible]. The band plays the March of the Ro[illegible], the stars pale away, the hum in the [illegible], and Madrid goes to bed.—Appleton's Journal.

THE BOOTHS.—"Joseph" writing to the New York Dispatch asking whether the elder Booth [illegible] an Israelite receives the following inform[illegible]

[illegible] Junius Brutus Booth was a native of [illegible] Pancras, London. His father was an at[illegible] and intended him for the same profes[illegible]. In his youth he was midshipman in the [illegible] Navy, but soon left it for drawing and [illegible]; afterward studied law, and then [illegible] sculpture; He was an accomplished [illegible], speaking French, Spanish, Italian [illegible] and Flemish fluently. In his family [illegible] prohibited the use of animal food, animal [illegible] was [illegible] on his farm, and the trees were never felled by the ax. All forms of religion [illegible] all temples of devotion were sacred to him, and in passing churches he never failed to bare [illegible] head reverently.

"MIRACLES WILL NEVER CEASE."—During a [illegible] of the Concord Baptist Association at Owenton, Kentucky, recently, a certain [illegible] delivered a sermon that deeply touched a good old Democrat in the audience—and an Owen county Democrat best known is of the purest breed. On being told that the [illegible] had once been a Yankee general he seemed wonder struck. At the close of the [illegible] he approached the preacher and, taking him by the hand, said: "They tell me you was a Yankee general in the Federal Army?" "Yes, it was the [illegible] and I tried to do my duty." "A Yankee and converted?" "Yes." "And a preacher of the gospel?" "Yes." "Well, well, and he miracles will never cease."—Macon, Ga, Telegraph

To a man who applied to Col Berry for [illegible], the Colonel said: "Haven't you got any money?" "No," said the man. "Advertise, then," said the Colonel, "that is the way [illegible] made his money."

The Iron Trade

[illegible] Bessemer rails were first made in the United States in 1867 to fill contracts. In 1871 this branch of the iron industry had been so well developed that [illegible] tons of steel rails had been made in that year. In 18[illegible] net tons Bessemer Rails alone were made—an increase in one year of [illegible] per cent. The blast furnaces in the United States now number about 600 of which about 100 were built in 187[illegible] and 187[illegible].

Crop Report.

The following is from our regular dispatches received to-day:

WASHINGTON, Sept 24.—The crop reports for September by the Department of Agriculture present an average of [illegible] for the condition of the wheat crop as a whole which is about the same as in September report of last year. While the present area in cultivation is much larger, the States in which more than an average yield of wheat per acre is indicated are Minnesota, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Oregon in the West and New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and Massachusetts in the East. The increased breadth in wheat will place the total quantity in several other States above the usual product and give a larger aggregate for the crop in the United States than in 1872. The quality is generally superior.

Miscellaneous.

We alluded some days since to the repeal of duties on grain and flour in France. A decree of August 29, 1873 exempts from discrimination and customs duties all grain and flour imported by land or by French and foreign vessels. The law of January 30 1872 which imposed the above duty has been repealed.

The Chicago Times of a recent date says a majority of the elevators of that city were crowded with grain almost to their full working capacity and orders had been issued by the officers of the Chicago and Rock Island and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroads to their agents in the interior to stop shipments for the present. As the scarcity of vessel room has restricted the outward movement, the stocks at this point have increased during the past week in an unprecedented manner, and are now estimated at over 8 00 000 bushels of all kinds of grain.

The last census placed the production of Flax in the United States in 1850 at 27,253,004 pounds which is a gain of 19 423 358 pounds as compared with the yield in 1860. In 1860 the crop was 4 720 145 pounds, or 2,289,531 pounds less than the quantity produced in 1850. In 1870 the Hemp production was 12 746 tons against 74 493 tons in 1860 (a falling off of 61 747 tons) and 34,871 tons in 1850.

The exports of raw Hemp from the United States in 1872 amounted to only $32 cwt, valued at $2 469 and the imports were 28,053 tons, valued at $4 482 406. The exports of Flax were nil and the imports 5,349 tons, valued at $1 432,936. After a perusal of the foregoing facts it would not be amiss if our farmers were to give this matter a little serious thought.

The imports of Wheat into the United Kingdom for the week ending August 29th were 1 194 976 cwt, against 789,937 cwt in the previous week. The deliveries of home-grown Wheat were 23 079 qrs, against 27,172 qrs in the corresponding week last year while the average price was the same as last year viz 60s 3d ₩ qr

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—During the week now under review our market has been rather quiet, especially since Sunday. Prices, both in San Francisco and Liverpool, are weaker. Exporters are now full handed and show no anxiety to press the market, even at the reduced rates. Quotations are furnished at $1 80@1 90. There being no vessels here to load wheat at present and our local warehouses being full, are reasons given that prices are down but we fear these are not all.

FLOUR—The advance to $6 50 per barrel for best brands, and proportionately for inferior qualities is well maintained and we notice considerably larger sales at current rates. The demand from ports to the north of us is quite brisk and large shipments are being made. The product of the new crop is coming to hand, and in point of quality cannot be excelled.

OATS—We note an increased activity in this cereal during the week, at firm prices. The aggregate receipts have been over 200,000 bushels of the new crop, and still the surplus seems hardly perceptibly lowered. Reports from the interior of the State confirm all previous accounts of large crops and some good judges estimate that at remunerative prices 1,500 000 bushels could be secured in our State. Quotations are furnished at 50 cents per bushel for the white and 45 cents for the black variety. This includes sacks.

BARLEY—But little of new reaching the market. Quotable at $1 40@1 45 per 100 lbs.

FEED—Bran is quotable at $1[illegible]@18 per ton, shorts $20, chopped middlings etc. $25@27 50

HAY—Baled timothy selling at $13 per ton to jobbers loose timothy $11, wild and mixed dull at $8@9

POTATOES—Best varieties quotable at 40@45 cents per bushel; common and lowland 35@40c

APPLES—The supply is increasing and demand for shipment dull. Prices are down very low.

ONIONS—But little inquiry is noted, and quotations are furnished as dull at 2 cents ₩ lb

BACON—There is some activity in the market though receipts are nominal. Prices are firm at an advance of ½ cent ₩ lb on choice lots.

BUTTER—There is a large supply of an inferior article in the market, but for a choice quality the call is brisk. We quote 15@30 cents ₩ lb as extremes of jobbers' paying prices.

EGGS—There is a fair demand and 25 cents ₩ dz. is freely offered for fresh receipts.

CHICKENS—We quote best lots of grown at $4@4 50 ₩ dz. spring $2 50@3.

HIDES—We notice considerable shipments and buyers are freely paying the figures last given.

WOOL—The last spring's clip is well out of first hands. Some place the amount passing through this market since May 1st at 2 00 000 lbs. We hear of no transactions to establish prices, holders claiming [illegible] cents ₩ lb for choice lots which is hardly conceded.

LYON'S KATHAIRON

Only 50 Cents per Bottle.

It promotes the GROWTH, PRESERVES the COLOR, and increases the Vigor and BEAUTY of the HAIR.

OVER THIRTY YEARS AGO LYON'S KATHAIRON FOR THE HAIR was first placed in the market by Professor E. Thomas Lyon, a graduate of Princeton College. The name is derived from the Greek "KATHRO," signifying to cleanse, purify, rejuvenate or restore. The favor it has received and the popularity it has obtained is unprecedented and incredible. It increases the GROWTH and BEAUTY of the HAIR. It is a delightful dressing. It eradicates dandruff. It prevents the Hair from turning gray. It keeps the head cool, and gives the hair a rich, soft, glossy appearance. It is the SAME in QUANTITY and QUALITY as it was over a QUARTER of a CENTURY AGO, and is sold by all Druggists and Country Stores at only 50 Cents per Bottle.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz. low countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails in effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Married Men,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who [illegible] laboring under any of these fearful maladies [illegible] forget the sacred responsibility resting upon [illegible] nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DR. GIBBON is responsible, and will give the patient a written instrument, binding him to effect a radical and permanent cure, or [illegible] charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating symptoms, length of time the disease has existed, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin in registered letter through the Post office or through Wells, Fargo & Co's Express, a medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union. All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates [illegible] the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many [illegible] for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he professes to cure.

Address DR J F GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Postoffice Box [illegible]

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the DAILY OREGONIAN. [illegible]
